1. Materials, Product Selection, and Custom Orders

Initials: _____

Edgewater Floor Store, LLC ("Store") sells flooring materials and related products ("Materials") according to the invoice/order. Customer approves product, color, style, quantity, trim, transitions, layout notes, and measurements before ordering. Special-order, custom-order, cut, opened, discontinued, or supplier-ordered Materials may not be cancelled, returned, or refunded after the order is placed unless the supplier/manufacturer allows it and the Store approves it in writing.

2. Deposits, Payment, Cleared Funds, and Release

Initials: _____

A deposit or full payment may be required before Materials are ordered. Required payments must be received and fully cleared before Materials are ordered, released, picked up, delivered, or scheduled. Payment for Materials cannot be withheld because of installer scheduling, labor disputes, additional work, payment holds, freight delays, backorders, or customer-requested changes.

3. Inspection, Pickup, Delivery, and Manufacturer Warranty

Initials: _____

Customer, installer, or the party taking possession must inspect Materials at pickup or delivery. Once Materials are accepted, signed for, picked up, delivered, or taken from the Store, responsibility for loss, damage, shortages, storage, handling, acclimation, and site conditions transfers to the party taking possession, except as covered by written manufacturer warranty.

4. Regular Independent Installer Referrals

Initials: _____

The Store works with a small group of independent flooring installers we regularly refer to customers because they have worked with our customers for years and have provided installer documentation to the Store. Customer is not required to use a referred installer and may choose any installer Customer prefers. Customer contracts directly with the installer. The installer is not hired, employed, supervised, directed, controlled, warranted, or guaranteed by the Store and is not the Store's employee, agent, subcontractor, partner, or representative.

5. Installer Records, W-9, and Insurance Documentation

Initials: _____

For internal recordkeeping, the Store may request and keep installer contact information, W-9, proof of insurance, workers' compensation coverage or exemption, and related documents. Keeping installer records does not mean the Store hired the installer, accepted control over the installer, or accepted responsibility for installation labor, workmanship, scheduling, jobsite conduct, damage, cleanup, warranty, or disputes.

6. Installation Pricing, Scheduling, Workmanship, and Disputes

Initials: _____

Any installation price discussed by the Store is an estimate only unless the independent installer separately agrees in writing. Final installation price, payment schedule, jobsite readiness, scope changes, additional work, workmanship, damage claims, installation warranty, and complaints are strictly between Customer and installer. If the Store collects installer payment as a convenience, that does not make the installer a Store employee, agent, subcontractor, or Store-controlled worker.

7. Limitation of Store Liability and Governing Law

Initials: _____

The Store's liability for defective Materials is limited to the purchase price of the affected Materials, subject to supplier/manufacturer policies. The Store is not liable for labor, removal, reinstall, delays, lost use, incidental, consequential, special, punitive, or installer-related damages. This Agreement is governed by Florida law, with venue in Volusia County, Florida.
